Green card renewal process must take place once in ten years before the current green card expires. Green card renewal has lots of importance including determining eligibility of employment, travelling both domestically & internationally, renewing your driver's license and also buying a home. Every green card holder must renew their green card if it is already expired or will expire in next 6 months. Since you don't use your green card every day, it is important to renew your green card in time to avoid certain consequences. It usually takes five to six months for the green card renewal process. Use form I-90 for the green card renewal or green card replacement process. You should apply for the green card renew...
