Description:

The heart is the second rarest shape seen in diamonds. Uncommon as it is, heart-cut diamonds are in soaring demand in wedding jewelry and engagement rings. Heart being the universal symbol of love finds a frontal place in wedding and engagement rings where a heart cut diamond makes a profound expression of love. But there was a time not long ago when only 1.6% of the diamonds certified by GIA was heart-cut. The number has gone up significantly since making it not so rare anymore, but to this day, heart shape remains to be one of the most uncommon shapes in diamonds. A Quick Study of the CutThe geometry of a heart cut is quite complex. When studied through a loupe, a diamond dressed in ideal heart cut reveals fa...
