Description:

Growing company is now hiring experienced sales professionals who are comfortable taking a high level of responsibility. Hired candidates will be working independently out of our Manhattan office. If you can speak Spanish that would be a big plus! We are a sales organization specializing in the direct marketing of energy solutions. Basically we set up appointments for our energy reps to go and meet with business owners and decision makers, to enroll them in a state program to help them with their utility bills. All you are doing is showing up at their business and explaining the program to them and enrolling them. He/she just agrees to the price reduction and signs. That's it. We do not charge the customer any ...
