Description:

Mommy Jobs Online is now seeking remote employees. This is for general transcription. Experience with general transcription that includes multiple speakers is required. Due to the full-time employment nature of the job, the employee will not be allowed to pick and choose which projects are worked on, but will be assigned projects during their hours and given deadlines by which they must be completed and up to our quality standards. If two hours of audio in an 8-hour period sounds like too much to transcribe, this is not the opportunity you're looking for. Pay starts at $10/hour but will increase incrementally to $15 and then $17 as and when productivity and skill are proven over time by meeting a 48 aud...
