Description:

Hoi An is a historic city in Vietnam that has been largely untouched by the outside world. Beside the Ancient town, UNESCO World Heritage Site, many people forget that there are plenty of unique things to be seen and done in the vicinity surrounding Hoi An. If you are wondering about what to do beyond Hoi An, why not take fishing and farming tour in Hoi An? A fascinating journey into the local villages where you gain insight into everyday life. In addition to Hoi An Ancient town central area, most of villagers at Hoi An waterland earn their living by fishing, the remainder making boats, nets or opening small material and grocery stores. But fishing remains a fundamental source of food and income for many people....
