Description:

Your hair adds on in your personality. There are a lot of factors like sun exposure, chlorine, and salt water can dry hair out. A proper care is required to protect your hair from getting dry and damaged. If you are already getting tensed from split ends and breaks, you can use damage control tricks to make it look healthier. There are so many ways to protect your hair, let us see some of them below: Apply Adequate Shampoo: Select a shampoo formulated for your hair type like silky, dry, etc. Some shampoos have detergent-like ingredient that badly affects the skull. It would keep your hair strong from the root. Moisturise Your Hair: A dermatologist always recommends using the moisturizer after washing you h...
