Description:

About Nainital Hill Station & Visiting Places Nainital is a famous hill station in Uttarakhand. It is the judicial capital and the High Court of the state being located there. It is the headquarters of the Kumaon division as well as an eponymous district. There are houses of the Governor, who resides in the Raj Bhavan. It is located in the Kumaon foothills of the outer Himalayas at a distance of 285 km (177 mi) from the state capital Dehradun and 345 km (214 mi) from New Delhi, the capital of India. Situated at an altitude of 1,938 metres (6,358 ft) above sea level, the city is set in a valley containing an eye-shaped lake, approximately two miles in circumference, and surrounded by mountains, of which the highest...
