Description:

Do you want to improve the sales productivity, skills, engagement, and win rates of your sales team? With adaptive learning and automated training paths, MindTickle is the only sales productivity software that improves time to productivity, reinforces skills, and increases win rates. Through a specialized sales onboarding process, new hires' skills are assessed and deficiencies are identified from day one. We provide sales productivity tools and checklists to managers to help them find and close skills and knowledge shortfalls, performance, and productivity.
