Description:

Firstly, you must have a court order for child support. If you and the non-custodial parent have a verbal agreement, you will need to take the necessary steps to obtain an agreement in writing and have it approved by the court. Once a court order is in place, a judge can enforce child support by the following methods: Hold the non-paying parent in contempt of court Fine the delinquent parent up to $1,000 or sentence them to 5 days in jail Sentence the non-paying parent to community service Order the delinquent parent to pay the custodial parents attorney fees At Baghdaserians Law Group, their experienced Pasadena child support attorneys have extensive experience helping families receive the monetary support the...
