Description:

The images have become an essential part of graphic designing along with being its characteristic since the start. Combining these images with a Vintage style offers you a more comfortable feeling when you use them. With the evolution of social media networks, images have become the main element of current graphic designs. Also social media platforms like Instagram consist of design tools that motivates the users to become a designer. graphic designer take extra care of the colors that are used when they make their designs. These colors convey different feelings and ideas. Therefore the use of flat colors more than the gradient ones has become the cherry on the cake in 2018. This suggests that the dull colors h...
