Description:

This home, which was built in 1920 when Tudor Revival homes were all the rage for wealthy families, originally was a holiday and country retreat; that is what attracted the current owners, along with the homes peaceful privacy on this scenic, lake-sized pond, where quiet water sports are pursued. This unique opportunity has an abundance of original features including large bedrooms and a master suite with dressing room. The tennis court and gunite pool add to the enjoyment with fencing from the house to the pool, so your family canine can have the same freedom as you.
