Description:

California Roof Professionals is a family-owned and operated roofing business that has been in the industry for two decades. After servicing the industry as a subcontractor as a father-daughter duo, we made a decision to provide customers in Los Angeles and Orange County with great products and service at fair prices. During the twenty years, we have witnessed just how roofing styles and materials have advanced. Something that has not changed, however, is our roofing standards. We are professionally trained, insured, licensed, and ready to work on your roof. We always use the highest-quality roofing materials available, ensuring your roof will last many years. We believe that besides delivering high-quality roo...
