Description:

This sturdy gorgeous solid teak wood butcher block is the last cutting board you?ll ever need. The rectangle end grain carving board is made of sustainably grown teak wood, which makes it look beautiful and gives it many advantages over other butcher blocks. Teak wood is naturally waterproof, meaning that the wood chopping block will be able to last as long as you need it for chopping meat, vegetables, bread etc. TeackCraft cutting board is bigger and heavier than the competition to ensure that you?ll have as large and durable a board as you need for any project and 18? x 12? in size. 2 inch thick. Large End-grain Butcher block comes with hand grip on each side. The butcher block is instilled with oil deep into...
