Description:

QelviQ is an ultra-modern innovation that acts as your personal sommelier. After 8 years of constant research involving winemakers, sommeliers, product engineers, full-stack web developers, and more people, this product was devised. It has an unimaginable demand because wine tasting is a quite popular activity. Most houses have wines set aside for regular use and special occasions but it is essential to have that wine at a balanced temperature. No ice bucket can work as great as QelviQ. Even wine refrigerators are also incompetent in providing the best temperature. Be it red or white wines, this product will gift you the best temperature.
