Description:

For sale is a DigiTrak F2 Directional Drilling Locator System. This is a complete system and includes handheld receiver unit, display unit, long range transmitter probe, batteries, charger, and case. Each piece is in good working condition and the two batteries hold a full charge. There are some scratches/scuffs on each piece from normal use, but overall they are in great shape cosmetically. The most noticeable scratch is found on the top corner of the receiver unit (shown in photo). The screens on the receiver and display are in excellent shape, totally scratch free. There are separate power cords included for the battery charger and display unit, but they each have the car lighter ends on them. I am including...
