Description:

Our daily routine includes both individual and small group learning experiences within the classroom. At our Pre Kindergarten in New York City NY, our teachers uniquely plan lessons based on a thematic unit which are reinforced in our various centers throughout the day. Your child will be exposed to interactive, hands on experiences that encourage independence, creative thinking, problem solving and language development. Fundamental learning skills such as pre-reading, pre-writing and pre-math skills are also incorporated in every lesson throughout the day. These skills are taught and encouraged daily while considering each child’s learning ability. Time is allotted for creative and imaginative play to foster s...
