Description:

A sport that includes dance, jumps, tumbling, and stunts are all-star cheerleading. The all-star cheerleading regulations change depending on the team's division and level. Routines are typically graded on difficulty, execution, innovation, and overall performance and last for two and a half minutes. Teams are required to adhere to tight criteria to protect everyone's safety, which is a major concern. Before beginning your adventure, make sure to do your homework on the rules and requirements for all-star cheerleading.
