Description:

Investing in multi-tenant real estate has many advantages over single-tenant ownership. Unlike a single-tenant property, where the owner runs the risk of vacancy if the sole occupant moves out, a multi-tenant property is insulated from such risks. With multiple tenants renting one or more units, the investor gets a steady income from rent and is able to maximize their return on investment. At Tag Industrial, we specialize in helping investors find ideal multi-tenant real estate opportunities in Houston. We understand that the key to a successful investment is finding the right property at an appropriate price point. Our team of experts will provide you with unbiased advice, helping you make the most informed de...
