Description:

Children are often front and center when a couple is separating, and it is most unfortunate that their lives are been affected. Coming up with a plan on how to address their living, schooling, and various other necessary arrangements is critical. In all Maryland child custody cases, the standard is what is in the best interests of the child. The Court will consider factors such as the fitness of each parent, the parent's ability to communicate and reach shared decisions, and the relationship between the child and each parent. Contact our experienced attorneys in Towson, Maryland, who represent clients in all types of custody matters including initial determinations of custody and modifications of existing custo...
