Description:

One of the top job portals in the USA for international students to look for work is OPTnation. They should start by making a profile that highlights their background, credentials, and ability to work. International students looking for chances for Optional Practical Training (OPT) will find a variety of employment advertisements on OPTnation. Through the portal, students can apply directly for jobs and search for positions by industry, region, and job title. In order to assist international students in successfully navigating the job search process and securing work in the USA, OPTnation also offers resources including interview advice, resume tips, and information on visa sponsorship.
