Description:

If you're in the market for a clean E30 convertible you've found it. I bought the car a little over a month ago from a local VW dealership that brought it in on a trade. I immediately took it to my trusted classic BMW mechanic for a look over. He did $1,300 worth of needed maintenance (see pictures for the itemized list) - the result is a super reliable and great looking classic ready for you to enjoy as soon as it's purchased. The only reason I'm selling it is because I'm just too tall for it. I thought I could make it work with a smaller steering wheel, but it remains uncomfortable after 15 minutes. I have the original steering wheel as well as a windscreen which paint chips from normal driving, which is to be...
