Description:

This Dodge Stealth TT is in immaculate cosmetic and perfect running condition. There has been no expense spared in the upkeep and maintenance on this car by expert mechanics. This car runs well and boosts to the max. It is very unusual to see a Stealth with this color and with this low of mileage. Most sale vehicles show 100-250k miles or are priced out of sight. -rare color -rare low miles car -kept in climate controlled garage its entire life -new tires (approximately 4,500 miles on them) It was explained at Skip Barber that this car would make an exceptional track car because of the unusual specification that this car was ordered with, in order to spare the extra weight that most Stealth's would have.
