Description:

I purchased this Ferrari 308 GTS in 2006 with 44,803 on the odometer. Over ten years, I have been mechanically "sorting out" the vehicle, while only recording 5,717 miles (current mileage 50,520). The vehicle's mechanical records are solid from mid-90s to current. Since my purchase, this vehicle has been well maintained with services at regular intervals. The rosso corsa (red) exterior is in excellent condition along with the tan original leather interior, which is in good condition for the age of the car. All lights, switches, and gauges function correctly. An aftermarket CD player was installed by previous owner. The timing belt service along with water pump replacement was completed 600 miles ago. Other rece...
