Description:

I'm selling my GT-R Black Edition, the price includes enclosed transport to any address in the continental US (aka the "lower 48 states"). I am the only owner. It's a 2012 model purchased new from Team Nissan of Marietta, GA and properly broken in via the drive home to Florida. Unlike most GT-R's, it has never been modified or raced. It has had no accidents or maintenance issues, it's been maintained by a local Nissan dealer, kept garaged and detailed, and includes all the original paperwork including window sticker. I'm simply selling it because I never have time to drive it, hence, the 11,000 miles I've put on in five years, most of which are from a 100 highway mile round trip to work on days I drive it....
